

THE REBEL MOUNTAIN

STORY TELLER

Mark K. Vogl

Mark has given more than 200 presentations across the Confederacy! A Distinguished Military Graduate of THE CITADEL, former Army Infantry officer, college professor, political aide, and author, his perspectives are salted by experience.

Author of eight books published. The first book, Military Lessons of the Civil War, received the Jefferson Davis Historical Gold Medal from the United Daughters of the Confederacy. Other books include: The Confederate Night Before Christmas, The Rebel Reader, and Dixie's Best Kept Secret, an introductory history of the Confederate States Navy.

Mark's most recent book, The Adventure – Stolen Days is a time-travel novel about an effort to save Stonewall Jackson's life! Incredibly researched in both history and time travel science – it's a story filled with delightful characters and adventures. G rated.

Mark is the great-great-grandson of Private David Parks Walter, 33rd North Carolina Volunteers, part of the famed Lane's Brigade, Stonewall Jackson's Corps, Army of Northern Virginia. A member of the Sons of Confederate Veterans Mark was awarded the Texas Division Confederate of the Year Award in 2009. He served as the 2<sup>d</sup> Lt. Commander and 1st Lt. Commander of the Texas Division.

Mark has developed twenty formal presentations and has delivered programs in every state of the old Confederacy. He is open to developing a new program especially for your organization given sufficient time.
